

SPRING SAUNTER

ALONG R STREET

Sunday
April 2, 2017
1 PM - 4 PM

Join the Sacramento Inter-Association of Emerging Professionals for an afternoon spring saunter along historic R Street! We will hear about individual projects such as the Warehouse Artist Lofts (WAL) and Ice Blocks from developers and architects, as well as the vision for revitalizing this vibrant area of downtown Sacramento. We will end our tour at Dos Coyotes for a chance to meet and mingle with fellow emerging professionals. Reserve your spot now! Space is limited. For questions, contact SacInterAssociation@gmail.com

$ 5 Registration (Taco Bar Included)

visit <http://squareup.com/store/california-sierra-chapter-asla> for tickets

1 PM: Meet at WAL Public Market picnic tables (1104 R St) – Tour with Michael F. Malinowski, FAIA, President, Applied Architecture Inc

1:45 PM: Walk along R St – Tour with Todd Leon, Development Manager, Capital Area Development Authority

2:30 PM: Tour of Ice Blocks with Deron Benvenuti, Project Manager, Heller Pacific

3:00 PM: Head to Dos Coyotes (1800 15th St) for drinks and taco bar

Bring water, sunblock & walking shoes!

